The defendant is present in court. He is X under custody released.

CASE CALLED FOR FINAL REVOCATION HEARING of supervised release. After having heard both parties in this case, the Court finds that the defendant violated the conditions of the imposed supervised release as cited in the motion filed by the U. S. Probation Office. Therefore, the supervised release term imposed on April 19, 2001, is hereby revoked. The Court has considered the Chapter Seven (7) Policy Statements of the Sentencing Guidelines as an advisory tool regarding revocation of supervised release. Same establishes that based on grade B violation and a Criminal History Category of I, the guideline imprisonment range is from 4 to 10 months.

Having considered the nature of the offender's original offense of conviction, as well as the conduct which has again brought him before the Court, the Court finds that defendant must be held accountable for his behavior and must now face the consequences of his actions. As such, a term of imprisonment within the recommended policy statements imposed.
